Mention software developer/web developer/APP Developer respectively in the subject line while posting the cv via mail.

Job profile:

As the title itself suggests that it's an office job which will certainly be reviewed every weekly monthly and yearly, understanding of the briefed project, meeting with concerns, doubt clearance, coordination with the development team and most importantly ensuring timely delivery is what it is all about!! One has to work as a pool between management and the client.

Remuneration:

Be assure that it will be best in the industry for the best, apart from the fix salary there will be incentives after achieving assigned targets.

Important things to keep in mind:

We have received end number of calls just to clarify that it's not a 9 to 5 desk job, it's a job which needs dedication so no calls about the remuneration or the desk job kind of thing will be entertained, so make sure before applying that don't apply for the sake of applying yet another job.

Job location is strictly Varanasi, so one have to report daily in the Varanasi office itself after joining, it's again clear here that it's not like doing things from your home or from your home town for that matter!! One have to report daily in presence.

We believe that we are surrounded by full of talents so don't waste it take the first step to join a dynamic pool of talent called team acesoft. Wishing the aspirants loads of success!! Post your CV's to careers@acesoft.co.in
